

STREET FAIR OVER

PRESIDENT COHN PREDICTS

That Next Year Will See Still a Bigger Fair.

The street fair is over. At exactly midnight last night King Korn climbed down from his throne, motioned for the lights to go out and ordered a special train on which he will go to Guthrie this morning. There were only a few stragglers about the booths. The midway dancers had gone and the tents were being taken down. The property men were crying as they pulled the stakes, "no-o-heave." The sword fighters in short garb were the last to leave. The curtain had been drawn on all the booths. The candy sellers and chile vendors were offering the remainder of their wares to the occasional wanderer at half price. Not regretfully, however, for it had been a big week for them. President Cohn and Secretary Lockwood were standing under the lights at the ticket window settling accounts with Mr. De Kroko. Men were piling up stakes and ropes and canvas and early this morning the midway will leave for Guthrie, where the street fair will open at Monday noon.

The attendance yesterday at the grounds was heavy. People didn't seem to get tired of seeing the displays. The crowd last night was another jam. About 2 o'clock King Korn in his state carriage passed under the big arch and the street fair was done.

It was a success in every way. "Next year," said President Cohn, "we will have a greater entertainment than this. We'll not only have the greatest entertainment Wichita ever had, but we'll have the greatest one Kansas ever saw in the way of a street fair or any other kind of entertainment."

This was the last night of almost every merchant in the city. A representative of the Eagle called at forty-four different stores of every kind, dry goods, clothing, shoes, drugs, furniture, groceries, stationery, etc. The answer at the dry goods and clothing stores was that this has been the biggest week Wichita ever had in her history. The rush began with Tuesday morning and got heavier every day of the week until Saturday night. Mr. Cohn estimated that $400,000 was left in the city since Monday night by visitors to the fair. Everybody is in favor of having another one and bigger one next year. The men who handled this one knew more about handling a fair now and next year they will begin earlier. The fair this year was gotten up in a very short time, considering the enormous amount of work that was accomplished. It was only a little more than five weeks from the time the Commercial club took the matter up until the show was over and the gates closed. President Cohn, as well as other members of the committee, worked incessantly almost from the very beginning.

The general committee certainly accomplished a great task in a very short time. Chairman Goldsmith took the matter up until the show was over and the gates closed. President Cohn, as well as other members of the committee, worked incessantly almost from the very beginning. The general committee certainly accomplished a great task in a very short time. Chairman Goldsmith took the matter up until the show was over and the gates closed. President Cohn, as well as other members of the committee, worked incessantly almost from the very beginning.

It took about $2,700 worth of lumber to construct the booths and this is saying nothing about the big arch at the entrance, which was very expensive in construction and lighting for a temporary affair. There was the most elaborate display of white and colored lights. The entire cost of the arch and all the enclosure, lumber and labor was not less than $1,000 and probably exceeded that. The definite cost of the entire affair is not known yet, but it will probably be somewhere between $5,000 and $6,000. The matter of advertising was an item of heavy expense. There was thousands of the most elaborate lithograph show sheets, newspaper advertising and the expense of men on the road for a week or ten days to put up the posters.

An estimate of the cost of the fair is approximately as follows:

Total cost	$5,000
Personal subscriptions	$4,000
Receipts from Midway	$1,000
Privileges	$2,400
Other moneys, sale of buttons, etc.	$900

This is only an estimate. Not all the collections have been made and private moneys have not all been paid. The total expense will probably exceed the income by $300, or in other words the fair cost Wichita between $500 and $800.

HEART DISEASE.

Some Facts Regarding the Rapid Increase of Heart Trouble.

Heart troubles, at least among the Americans, are certainly increasing, and while this may be largely due to the excitement and worry of American business life, it is more often the result of weak stomachs, and poor digestion.

Real organic disease is incurable; but not one case in a hundred of heart trouble is organic.

The close relation between heart trouble and poor digestion is because both organs are controlled by the same great nerves, the sympathetic and pneumogastric.

In another way, also, the heart is affected by the form of poor digestion, which causes gas and fermentation from half digested food. There is a feeling of oppression and heaviness in the chest caused by pressure of the distended stomach on the heart and lungs, interfering with their action; hence arises palpitation and short breath.

Poor digestion also poisons the blood, making it thin and watery, which irritates and weakens the heart.

The most sensible treatment for heart trouble is to improve the digestion and to insure prompt assimilation of food.

This can be done by the regular use after meals of some safe, pleasant and effective digestive preparation, like Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, which may be found at most drug stores, and which contain valuable, harmless digestive elements in a pleasant, convenient form.

It is safe to say that the regular persistent use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at meal time will cure any form of stomach trouble, except cancer of the stomach.

Full size package of these tablets sold by druggists at 35 cents. Little book on stomach troubles mailed free. Address F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

"To Do Ill Costs More Than To Do Well."

This might properly read, "It costs more to BE ill than to BE well." The source of all health is rich, strong blood. It is to the body what the mighty streams are to the earth. If the blood is pure, the body thrives; if the blood is weak or impoverished, then every pulse-beat carries weakness instead of strength. The only perfect blood purifier and vigor-maker in existence is the world-famed Hood's Sarsaparilla. It brings good, perfect health.

Catarh and Deafness—"I am 65 years old and suffered from catarh for many years, becoming quite deaf. I took nine bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla to effectually cure me. I can hear quite well now." John K. Houk, Hamilton, Montana.

Rheumatism—"I was worn out with rheumatism, but took Hood's Sarsaparilla and I now have a good appetite and am as well as any woman." Mrs. H. H. Gray, Emporia, Kan.

way and its several shows was about $3,800. The contract allowed Monday & De Kroko to retain the first $2,000, after which the fair committee got 20 per cent of the ticket sales. Mr. Mundy, proprietor of the Midway, said he was very well pleased with the business done here.

He thought that the receipts would have been $2,000 more if it had not been for the parades and the numerous good free attractions. As a matter of fact the excellence of the booth displays, the bicycle performances, the balloon ascension and parades, with dozens of other attractions, all free, left people very little time to go to the Midway.

THOSE RUBBER BALLS. The gentlemen who controlled the right to sell the rubber balls "that always come back" say that at Kansas City, Fort Scott and the fairs in Ohio and Illinois, they didn't have half the crowds nor half the merriment, nor half the attractions Wichita had. They sold 250 gross of these balls, or a total of 30,000. This is double the amount the men have sold at any other fair this year. Twice they telegraphed to Chicago for rubber balls. Other things went in the same way. Everything was on the jump from the start.

WEEK'S TOTAL ATTENDANCE.

A representative of the Eagle asked ten reliable men to make estimates of the crowds that attended. Each man gave his estimate of each day, beginning Monday. An average was made of all these estimates and the result is:

Monday	3,000
Tuesday	4,500
Wednesday	27,000
Thursday	25,000
Friday	35,000
Saturday	2,000
Total	$0.100

The estimates were all conservative. One gentleman estimated the crowd Wednesday as low as 12,000, which cut the average down very materially. The highest estimate of Wednesday was 45,000. The highest estimate of Friday was 50,000 and the lowest 20,000. There was close to 30,000 people in Wichita in the entire week. This enormous crowd left probably half a million dollars with the merchants, hotels and restaurant men. It was the most roaring kind of a success and everybody is enthusiastic in praise of the street fair committee, in commendation of the fair and in favor of another and greater one next year.

THANKS CITY OFFICIALS.

President Cohn, who has worked night and day for the success of the fair, on behalf of the fair committee extends Mayor Ross and the council, City Attorney Helm, Chief Cullen and his force and other city officials for the very kind and effective assistance they have rendered. Everything has been harmonious and cordial for the success of the week. There will be another bigger fair next year, alone Sam Hess says the fair will make an addition of 2,000 to the population of the city in the next year.

QUEEN'S ACKNOWLEDGMENT.

Now that it is all over and the most successful festival which Wichita ever attempted is ended, the carnival queen, Miss Myrta Mahoney, desires to express her most cordial appreciation and realizing sense of gratitude to all who aided her or who in any manner took part in the arrangements which resulted in her triumph and glory. She feels that it would be entirely impossible to thank in person each one who assisted her, but she wishes it known generally that she in no manner fails to appreciate and thoroughly realize her debt of gratitude to her many friends. To an Eagle reporter yesterday she modestly suggested that she especially appreciated the courtesies extended to her by the fair committee. She said: "I shall never forget how nice they treated me, as well as many others who did all they could for me. I certainly felt very much pleased at the hearty cheers I received along the line. I will always have some very pleasant memories to cherish and will always try to merit the honors I have received. I wish to thank all for their loyalty and the unexpected honors which have been so lavishly bestowed upon me. I will tend to make me appreciate my friends and the public generally, the press and the management of the fair association. I will try to merit their conferred honors."

LOOKED ON IN REGRET

People Hate to See the Beautiful Street Lighting Go.

The Wichita man had regret in his eyes last night. He knew he was looking on the brilliant electrical street decorations for the last time in a twelvemonth. The brilliant signs, the gorgeous festoon across the corner, the vista of effulgent arches, the glowing arch, made the walkers on the street pause and take a last, fond look.

It is probable that after a time Wichita wouldn't see it, but at any rate a week of the beautiful street display was not enough.

Miss Lottie Newcomb returned Thursday after a six weeks' visit with her sister, Mrs. Chas. Garvey of Chicago.

The salvage stock of Innes & Co. has about all been removed to the Fletcher-Floyd building, and the work of clearing and conditioning the stock has already begun. Insurance men and local agents interested in the loss are busy looking over the goods, and it was the opinion yesterday that a settlement would be easily reached as soon as the stock is cleaned up. Innes & Co. have employed Morton Woolman of Kansas City to handle the goods and put them in condition to be sold. Mr. Woolman is a specialist in this line and has handled some of the largest salvage stocks in the country. Mr. C. W. Kiehl, his manager, will have charge of this stock and is making good headway. He expects to complete the work in ten days. Able assistants and specialists in cleaning fire-damaged goods will be here Monday from Kansas City, and a large number of young women will be employed. The carpet machine which is used to clean, roll and measure the fine moquette and plush carpets, will be put in operation. Three floors of the building are occupied by the immense lot of goods. Nearly all are damaged by smoke, fire or water, some only slightly and others beyond redemption. On the third floor is placed all of the carpets, rugs, lace curtains, cloaks, jackets, underwear, etc. The carpets and curtains are hung from the ceiling to dry, while other goods are hung singly and scattered about in great places to be handled by the conditioners of the stock. Immediately after Mr. Keith fulfills his work the insurance adjusters and the proprietors will figure on a settlement of the loss. Mr. Weiser, of the firm of Innes & Co., said yesterday that he thought with the insurance of $51,000 there would be sufficient salvage to make them about whole on the stock, which was valued at about $85,000.

Mr. Lloyd B. Purcell, owner of the Innes building, will put a force of carpenters at work Monday to repair the room. He has given the firm to understand that it will be ready for the stock by December 1. It will be handsomely finished and slightly remodeled.

GIVES SATISFACTION.

A Certain Cure for Piles.

The Pyramid Pile Cure is a success because it has the merit which brings success. It cures every form of piles and cures them to stay cured. It is now the most popular and best known pile remedy before the public, and one reason for its great popularity is because it has taken the place of surgical operations, once considered the only sure cure.

People often wonder that so simple a remedy will so promptly cure such an obstinate trouble as piles are well known to be. Yet the greatest remedies and greatest inventions we have are the simplest, and the fact that it does cure is all the sufferer from piles wants to know.

The Pyramid Pile Cure cures piles in any stage of the disease, as shown by the following testimonial letters which are published every week and new cases reported each time.

From Geo. C. Gieck, Owens Mill, Mo.: Some time ago I bought a package of Pyramid Pile Cure for my wife, who had suffered very much. The first trial did her more good than anything she had ever tried. It is just as represented.

From Richard Loan, Whipple, Ohio: I have used the Pyramid Pile Cure and am entirely pleased and satisfied with results. It does the work and no mistake.

Mr. W. R. Hines of Magnolia, Ark., says: Although I have used the Pyramid Pile Cure only a very short time, yet it has been very beneficial to me.

From Mrs. Peter Lake, Monaw, N. Y.: I received the Pyramid Pile Cure, but put off using it until last week, when I became so bad I decided to try it. I have suffered twenty-nine years with bleeding piles and have used a great deal of medicine, but never had anything that did so much for me as your remedy.

The proprietors of this remedy could publish columns of similar letters to the above if necessary, but these are enough to show what it will do in different cases.

The Pyramid Pile Cure is prepared by the Pyramid Drug Co. of Marshall, Mich., and for sale by druggists everywhere at 10 cents per package. One package is sufficient to cure any ordinary case. Your druggist will tell you more about it.

The Big Store makes the above claim and at all times is ready and willing to "show you."

We have made a life-long study of woman's Dry Goods requirements.

This knowledge, combined with our cash system, is what has built up our present large business and made the Big Store the popular trading place of the people. Our mammoth stock, loading down three immense floors, is second to none in Kansas.

Our resident New York buyer furnishes us at all times with the cream of European and American creations, and is always on the alert to take advantage of all snaps—and there are many—that may be offered in goods that will please our customers.

This Whooping, Yelling Boy

is doing business in an old-fashioned way—he's not getting as much trade as the quiet boy. It's the same way in advertising. Who, now-a-days, is attracted by the big head lines and page "spreads" of exaggerated statements?

Tomorrow we put on sale two lots of correctly tailored, all wool, unfinished Worsted Suits, in two distinct patterns of greenish checks, at $12.00 the suit. They are just the same quality and pattern that was so popular last season at $18.00, but stripes have the call for favors and these have, so to speak, "taken a back seat." That's why we offer them for business wear at the bargain price of $12.00 the suit. Now, don't you think this is just as much of an opportunity for you to save money as if we'd told about it in a half page ad?

Bargains are doubly bargains if they can be had when you want them. Real ones can always be found at the Good Clothing Store.
